WOODLAWN FARMERS' CLUB. [Reported for the Gazette.]

The Woodlawn Farmers' Club me on the 13th of January at Epsewason, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Roberts, and was called to order about 4:30 p. m., by President E. E. Mason.

The secretary announced the receipt of the December monthly list of publications issued by the Department of Agriculture and that he had sent for several bulletins of the said department and had distributed them amongst the members.

Mr. J. W. Roberts said he had exam ined the bulletin on food stuff and feeding animals and believed it contained much valuable information and that with the careful exercise of judgment the tables it contained could be made use of to great advantage in the mixing and proper balancing of rations.

The club discussed the subject of a substitute for wheat bran. Some had fed ground oats with good results and some had tried barley and believed it about equal to corn meal. Cow peas have not been used by any of the members to any great extent but some had tried hem experimentally; the same of peas and oats.

There was also some discussion of the management, or probable mismanagement, of the approaching reassessment of real estate and the inequality of tax-stion, and of the road laws, but no one had formed any very decided views as to what should be done to improve these matters, so no action was taken. It was the opinion of the club that the township system, abolished some 35 years ago, was the best road law we have had. One great defect in the resent road law is that there is no one responsible for the condition of the roads or bridges or for accidents caused by neglect of repairs.

J. W. Roberts said that Senator Don-ohoe recently told him that all the com-countrations he had received from farmers on the subject of a tax on fertifizers had been favorable thereto. It was the general opinion of the mempers of the club that it would work little good, but would be made an excuse by the fertilizer companies for advancpaying the tax and not getting propor-

The club also thought that the proposed law requiring railroad companies o have separate cars for the colored to have separate cars for the colored race would work a great inconvenience to the companies and be of very little satisfaction to the traveling public.

The club then adjourned to meet at "Cameron," the residence of J. W. Roberts, on February 10, at 11 a. m.

AN ENTOMBED MINER'S DIARY. The body of William Calloway, the fire boss of the Kaska William mine, at Hazeleton, Pa., was recovered yesserday by the men who have been in search of him since December 18 last. Calloway on that morning as usual went down the mine to see if there was gas. He was imprisoned by a fall of rock. His predicament soon became known, and night and day since then every effort was made to get at the un-fortunate man. At times it was thought that sounds could be heard coming from the direction of where he was sup-posed to be, and it was hoped to get him out alive. But all efforts were in vain, and not before yesterday morning was the last shovelful of debris removed and his body discovered. It was plain that Calloway had lived for a long time after his incarceration, and the surmise is that he was alive for three weeks. He kept a diary on a sheet iron door cosing with chalk, recording the happenings of the weary hours as they dragged along, and the feeling that overcame him in his position. That he kept alive so long after his imprisonment is only equaled by the case of "Big Joe," who was buried in the Jeanesville mine disaster. but came out alive after being imprisored nineteen days.

The diggers first discovered Callo way's handwriting on a plank at the side of the chute. It read:

"I am in the next chute, No. 112.
"WILLIAM CALLOWAY." The writing spurred the rescuers on and they worked strenuously until the body was recovered. Upon a piece of sheet iron on a brattice door were the words in his handwriting. They were addressed to his wife and sons: "I think I am gone. Good-bye Fan-don't think you will see your father again. I think this is Wednesday." nie. Be good boys, Guy and Willie. I

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years with the could not such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years in hed." that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness melancholy, headache, backache, faint-ing and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

He Only Repeats What Has Been Said Around The World.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every State in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamber-lain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher, of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the giobe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by all druggists

AUGUST FLOWER.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesman, or for ing the price of their products considerably, so that the farmer would be really from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at the drug stores of Ernest L. Allen, Claud M.
